The Watauga High basketball teams are going through a repeating cycle of last year's wintry weather that cost the Pioneers four games on the schedule.

Mother Nature was at it again on Monday as a winter storm clobbered the area, dropping anywhere from a foot of snow or more in the high country. The end result, the Pioneers, who were scheduled to play Alexander Central in Taylorsville Tuesday night, were forced to cancel their second game in four days. Bad weather forced WHS to postpone its home game with Fred T. Foard last Friday.

No make up dates have been announced as of yet for either contest. And this time around the Pioneers aren't alone when it comes to postponing games. The Hickory-St.Stephens and Fred T. Foard-South Caldwell games scheduled for Tuesday night have been called off. And with the possibility of no school in Catwaba County on Wednesday (Catawba County has a rule that if there isn't any school, no athletic events will be played) these games will remain in limbo until at least until the end of the week.

The WHS men and women are scheduled to play at Hickory Friday night. Our air time Friday night, 6 pm on Oldies 100.7 FM.
