

'Gerlefest' Rolls into Town, Benefits Humane Society

Written by Steve Frank

Wednesday, 18 April 2012 07:13

Appalachian Rollergirls (ARG) will be hosting their first home bout "GERLEFEST," of their second season in Boone NC on April 28th at 5:00 pm at the Holmes Convocation Center. ARG is Boone's first and only local female Rollerderby team. The girls will be bouting against the B-Dazzlers of Charlotte NC. A portion of the proceeds from the event will benefit Watauga Humane Society.

Tickets for "Gerlefest" are $10 in advance, $12 game day. ASU and Caldwell students tickets are $5 with student ID. Fans ages 12 and under are free! Tickets can be purchased online at www.theholmescenter.com. Retail locations offering tickets in advance are: Black Cat Buritto, Lucky Penny and Boone Drug at Deerfield.

For more information visit appalachianrollergirls.com