

CCC&TI Graduates New Class of Linemen

Written by CCC&TI Release

Wednesday, 06 March 2013 07:11

Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute recently held its fifth Electrical Lineman graduation on Feb. 14, 2013. There were 13 graduates. New to the program with this group of graduates was an underground utilities component. Pictured are: front row, left to right, Joshua Greer, Earl Cook IV, William Townsend, Seth Tadt, Brett Johnson and Troy Warhurst. Standing, Left to right are Instructor David Mikeal, Instructor Dean Ford, Nathan Carroll, Nicholas Hanek, Christopher Raper, Trey Norton, Justin Church, Christopher Cuddington, Roger Austin and Instructor Nick Stanbury. For more information about the Electrical Lineman program at CCC&TI, contact Reid Roper at 726-2628.