High Country Crimestoppers released a report Tuesday in regard to the missing Seven Devils woman.

41-year-old Deana Elizabeth Schermerhorn was last seen by family members on November 8 at her residence in Seven Devils. Schermerhorn may be in the company of 27-year-old Christopher Warren Meade. They could be driving a 1999 burgundy Oldsmobile Bravada, four-door SUV with a North Carolina registration YXR-4449.

Schermerhorn stands about 5'2" tall, blonde hair, blue eyes, and of slim build. Meade is described as about 5'7" tall, brown hair, brown eyes with possible facial hair.

Seven Devils authorities issued a statement saying several area authorities conducted an extensive search in Seven Devils on Friday, but didn't find anything. Authorities fear Schermerhorn may be deceased.

A Crimestoppers official told High Country Radio now that the case has been put under the Crimestoppers umbrella, anyone who gives tips on Schermerhorn's whereabouts could be eligible to receive reward money. Residents with information about Schermerhorn can call High Country Crimestoppers' Watauga County office at (828) 268-6959.
