

Get ready to 'Crank' it up tonight

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Wednesday, 25 July 2007 21:12

The 28th Annual High Country CRANK-UP is tonight through Saturday off U.S. Highway 421 in Deep Gap across from the New Laurel Springs Church.

Antique engines will be on display as well as hit & miss gas engines a pedal tractor pull for the kids. Topped off with homemade ice cream, organizers hope it will be an event to remember. The show starts at 9 a.m.