Boone police have confirmed that a body has been found in the vicinity of the Leola Street Community Garden, on Greenway Road, behind the K-Mart.

A passer-by discovered the body around 8:45 this morning. The body was found in Kraut Creek behind the garden. Boone Police as well as Watauga County Sheriff's Office has officers on scene investigating. An official release from the Boone Police Department is expected anytime.

Update: Officials at the scene are not releasing any statements, however a Boone Police officer was seen entering the gardens with a camera bag. Around six officers are currently at the scene investigating. The gardens are currently blocked off with police tape.
