

Still no statement on Kraut Creek body

Written by
Friday, 27 July 2007 08:54

Boone Police Department has yet to release any information on the body of an unidentified man found this morning in Kraut Creek behind the Leola Street Community Garden in Boone.

A passer-by was taking a stroll through the garden and made the discovery around 8:45 a.m. this morning.

Officers from Boone Police Department, Watauga County Sheriff's Office, and the State Bureau of Investigations are on scene. Officials are busy interviewing neighbors, trying to determine what happened.

The gardens have been blocked off by police tape. Stay tuned for more information as it becomes available.