

Jim Black- serving time

Written by
Monday, 30 July 2007 20:49

Former House Speaker Jim Black is currently serving his five-year sentence- after turning himself in yesterday.

Black, of Mecklenburg, pled guilty to a federal corruption charge in February. Prosecutors believe Black illegally took thousands of dollars from chiropractors while pushing their agenda at the state Legislature. He is due to be sentenced this week in state court on charges of bribery and obstruction of justice.