

Amber alert issued for Cabarrus child

Written by

Wednesday, 01 August 2007 09:15

The North Carolina Center for Missing Persons has issued an AMBER Alert for 18-month-old Enrique James Lazo, allegedly abducted from Cabarrus County.

The child is 25 pounds with black hair and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing a one-piece yellow suit and brown sandals with a leather strap. Lazo was reported missing from Drystone Drive in Huntersville.

Police are looking for 28-year-old Rene Rachelle in connection with his disappearance. Rachelle is a white female, possibly driving a maroon Geo Prizm with North Carolina license plate number WNC3856.

Anyone with information should call the Cabarrus County Sheriff's Office at (704) 920-3016.