

Johnson County break-ins

Written by

Wednesday, 08 August 2007 20:00

A recent string of break-ins in Johnson County have sheriff's deputies on alert.

The break-ins have occurred in the past two weeks on Hawkins Road and Dry Branch Road. Miller Road, Pleasant Valley Road and Gate Hollow Road have all been affected in Mountain City. Items allegedly stolen include four wheelers, jewelry, guns and money. Officials within Johnson County Sheriff's Office indicate the crimes could be related. Anyone with information is urged to contact law enforcement.