

Local representative: perfect vote attendance

Written by

Sunday, 12 August 2007 20:00

A study conducted by the Greensboro News & Record to look at who missed the most votes in the General Assembly found three House members had spotless records, including the 84th District's Phillip Frye.

This means Frye has been present for every vote in the General Assembly this session. Frye, a Republican, represents Avery, Caldwell, Mitchell and Yancey counties.