

Newland fire chiefs meeting- progress made

Written by

Tuesday, 21 August 2007 20:23

---

Avery County firefighters are optimistic that a compromise can be reached in a contract debate that has been raging all summer.

A meeting earlier this week gave chiefs a chance to request specific changes to sections of the drafted contract- and the county attorney did not object to the proposals. Hopefully, a third draft of the contract will be available for signatures in the next week.