

UPS truck hits Lansing home

Written by

Tuesday, 21 August 2007 20:24

An Ashe County got a surprise Monday evening.

A UPS truck parked across the street rolled into his Lansing home as its operator was delivering a package. While no one was at the residence, officials say it's lucky the home was made of concrete- otherwise the damage could have been much more substantial.