

Acting Revenue Secretary becomes Permanent

Written by

Tuesday, 28 August 2007 20:00

Acting state revenue secretary Reggie Hinton officially has the job. Hinton has been acting secretary since Norris Tolson resigned in June. Governor Mike Easley made the announcement yesterday. Hinton has been employed with the Revenue Department since 1978. Former secretary Tolson left the post to become president and chief executive officer of state-funded nonprofit North Carolina Biotechnology Center.