

Construction contract approved: WHS

Written by

Friday, 31 August 2007 11:09

The new Watauga County High School is moving along.

At yesterday's joint meeting with the Board of Education, Watauga County commissioners approved the proposed contract with Barnhill and Vannoy for construction management and at-risk projects. School officials hope dirt will start moving mid-September.