

Easley announces Labor Day road statistics

Written by

Thursday, 06 September 2007 20:02

Governor Mike Easley released statewide road statistics from Labor Day weekend this week.

State and local law enforcement officials cited 2,905 motorists for impaired driving during the Labor Day "Booze It & Lose It" campaign. Additionally, a total of 102,622 traffic and criminal citations were issued. Over 10,000 seatbelt violations were issued, as well as over 2,000 drug charges.