

Detective says go Explore

Written by Tommy Culver and Lauren K. Ohnesorge
Monday, 10 September 2007 09:15

Tonight marks an important event for the Boone Police Explorers. I t's their open house at the Watauga County Sheriff's Office. According to Detective Glen Cornhauser, tonight's the perfect chance for young people between the ages of 14 and 20 to sign up.

Explorers learn the ins and outs of law enforcement- and can decide if its really the right career path.

It's a way to jumpstart your future career, Cornhauser says.

Explorer alumni often have an easier time at Basic Training, he says.

The open house is from 6:30 to 8:00.