Jews the world over will be ushering in the new year Wednesday evening. This season, known as the High Holidays, begins with Rosh Hashanah and closes with Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, Saturday September 22nd. A full calendar of services will be offered by The Hickory Jewish Center. More information, including services times, can be found at hickoryjewishcenter.org, or by calling Chris Christenbury at 828-310-5760
