

Boone PD make arrests for larceny and assault

Written by Richard Anderson
Thursday, 22 November 2012 06:25

Anthony James Cook, age 37 of Boone was arrested yesterday and charged with one count of Felony Larceny by Employee. Mr. Cook is alleged to have taken money over the course of several months from Carolina West Wireless where he was employed. Mr. Cook was arrested on a Boone Police Department warrant by the Watauga County Sheriff's Department. Mr. Cook was held on a $10,000.00 secured bond.

Christopher Alan Johnson, age 26 of Blowing Rock was also arrested yesterday and charged with one count of Assault with Serious Injury and one count of Injury to Personal Property. Mr. Johnson is alleged to have assaulted a Banner Elk man and damaged the man's vehicle in October. Mr. Johnson was the second suspect arrested in this matter. Dustin Lee Johnson, age 24 was arrested in October on similar charges related to the same incident.