

Bank of America Boosts Habitat

Written by Dave Blanks

Thursday, 12 April 2007 07:37

The Bank of America is making a $6 million donation to Habitat for Humanity International. The gift continues a 20 year partnership between the Charlotte-based bank and the non-profit. The donation is intended to increase the capacity for Habitat to provide quality, affordable housing for families worldwide