

Motorcyclist Killed in Tennessee Crash

Written by Steve Frank
Tuesday, 28 May 2013 06:07

A Mountain City motorcyclist was killed in a crash early Friday morning, according to the Tennessee State Patrol. The report indicates that 39-year old Christopher Terrill ran off of Tenn. Hwy 91 was killed after his motorcycle went off the road traveling north bound on the state highway, hit a street sign and some mail boxes. According to the report, Terrill fell from the motorcycle and both he and the cycle came to rest on the side of the roadway. The crash remains under investigation.