

Another Boone Business Struck by Vehicle

Written by Steve Frank
Monday, 01 July 2013 13:01

Another Boone business suffered a shattered door, but at least this time, there was no break-in intended. The KFC on Blowing Rock Road was struck just after 9 this morning by a Toyota Rav4 that shattered one side of the west-facing door, and knocked both the doors there out of their frame. Boone Police were called to take a report on the damage, but no injuries resulted from the crash.