

Boone Resident Assists in Haiyan Relief

Written by Submitted

Thursday, 28 November 2013 16:04

Naval Aircrewman (Tactical) 1st Class David Wright, from Boone, N.C., prepares to drop off humanitarian supplies from an MH-60R Sea Hawk helicopter from the Warlords of Helicopter Maritime Strike Squadron (HSM) 51 in support of Operation Damayan.

The George Washington Carrier Strike Group in coordination with Joint Task Force (JTF) 505 personnel is assisting the Philippine government in ongoing relief efforts in response to the aftermath of Super Typhoon Haiyan in the Republic of the Philippines. (U.S. Navy photo by Mass Communication Specialist 3rd Class Ramon G. Go/Released)