

Hambro buys Broyhill Plant in Caldwell

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Friday, 11 May 2007 03:55

Hambro Forest Products of Crescent City, California, has agreed to purchase the Broyhill particleboard manufacturing facility in Lenoir.

The 51 jobs already in place will stay, according to Hambro, while an additional 4 or 5 jobs will be added to the facility. The plant reopened this week under a new name: Blue Ridge Panels. The goal is to have the facility working on a 24-hour, seven-day per week work schedule.