

Congresswoman Virginia Foxx's new Teachers in Congress Program will send one deserving 5th District school teacher to Washington for two weeks in July.

The program will allow teachers to bring a "taste of our government" to students, Foxx said. Now the only question is who. Applicants must live in the 5th Congressional District and teach high school. Contact Foxx's office for more information at 202-225-2071.