

Hold onto your broomsticks- Harry Potter comes to town

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Monday, 09 July 2007 18:18

Midnight marks the highly anticipated opening of Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix in select theatres- including Boone's Regal Cinemas.

There, employees are gearing up for what promises to be a busy night. A sell out is expected.

As of yesterday evening, tickets were still available- but chances are they won't be for long.

The fifth film in J.K. Rowling's acclaimed series to be adapted to the screen, it promises to be darker than previous films.

Call your local movie theatre for tickets and show times.

J.K. Rowling's final installment, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows hits bookstores July 21.