The Sam Adams Golf Academy is open for business at RedTail Mountain.

Boone native Sam Adams, winner of the Quad Cities Open during the 1973 PGA Tour, as well as certified Class A PGA professional and Division 1 college golf coach Joshua Whorter makeup the coaching staff. The academy focuses on improving short-game and shot-making skills, as well as scoring strategies and golf etiquette. Group instruction and one-on-one instruction is also offered. For more information on this new High Country service, call the Pro Shop at 423-727-7931.
