

Paving Scam, Break In Charges Files Against Boone Man

Written by Matt Stevens: Boone PD press release
Monday, 19 July 2010 16:35

Boone Police have arrested a local man on charges related to fraudulent paving and roofing. George Demetro, age 36 of Boone, was arrested on Saturday July 17th and charged with one felony count of obtain property by false pretense, one misdemeanor count of damage to real property, and one misdemeanor count of breaking or entering. The charges stem from two incidents in which Demetro is alleged to have sprayed an unidentified substance on a woman's driveway without authorization and entered another woman's home without authorization under the guise of inspecting for roofing leaks. Demetro was given a $3,500 secured bond and an August 20, 2010 court date.