

Blowing Rock Hosts Trout Derby and Wine Festival

Written by Christie James

Tuesday, 27 March 2007 01:37

Blowing Rock will bring folks in during April. Trout fishing season opens April 7th...and that means the 28

h

Annual Blowing Rock Trout Derby. The weekend begins with their famous fish fry Friday Night April 6 th

at the Blowing Rock Emergency Services complex downtown.

Proceeds go to support citizen fire and safety services. Saturday and Sunday anglers will compete to bring home the biggest fish. There's still time to register. Call 295-7851 or drop by the TDA's visitor's center. And the fun doesn't stop there. The following weekend brings wine lovers to the 2nd annual Blue Ridge Wine Festival. The weekend will feature an abundance of wine tastings, food challenges, classes and gallery strolls.