Acting on an anonymous tip, Deputies of the Avery Sheriff's Office arrested two after drugs were found in the Hickory Nut Gap Road home where three children also lived. Securing a search warrant, deputies reportedly found methamphetamines and narcotics, leading to the arrests of Traci Lynn Dacheux, 29, and 34-year old John Harrison Ollis. With the two arrests, the Avery Department of Social Services placed the children in foster care pending the outcome of the charges. Dacheux and Ollis were charged with Possession of Methamphetamines and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, with bonds set at $10,000 each.
