

Two TN Men Charged in Boone Break-Ins

Written by Steve Frank

Wednesday, 05 December 2012 12:04

A November 23rd break-in to two Boone businesses has led to two Elizabethton, Tennessee men being arrested by Boone Police Tuesday. Counts of Felony Breaking and Entering were filed against Corey Lynn Holsclaw, 18 and 20-year old Devyn Aldrich Chambers, who were arrested in Boone during a traffic stop. The two were alleged to have forced entry into a business building located at 1380 Highway 105 in Boone which houses First Tracks and Home Grown Glass. Both men were taken before a Watauga County Magistrate who issued a $10,000.00 secured bond for each and a court date of January 22nd 2013.