

Tennessee Man Charged in Business Break-In

Written by Steve Frank

Tuesday, 15 January 2013 16:33

Boone Police have made an arrest in connection with their investigation into a break-in at a local business in which car parts and tools were taken. Investigators arrested Timothy Nash Riffe, 39, of Bristol, TN., charging him with one count of Felony Breaking and Entering and one count of Felony Larceny after Breaking and Entering. Riffe is listed as a prior employee with Radford Quarries, and is alleged to have entered the business off Den Mac Drive sometime during the night of December 30th. Riffe then reportedly stole automobile parts and various tools, before driving back to Tennessee. Timothy Nash Riffe was taken before a Watauga County Magistrate, where he was also served with an outstanding warrant for one count of Felony Larceny by Employee. Mr. Riffe was assigned a court date of February 26th and placed under a $10,000 secured bond.