Crimestoppers information has led to the arrest of two Boone men in connection with the theft of an electric cart from the Boone Wal-Mart store on February 26th. The crime was posted by Boone Police and High Country Crime Stoppers, seeking assistance from the public in identifying the two for questioning about the theft of an electric cart, seen being loaded into an SUV on surveillance video. Numerous tips were received as a result of this release, according to Police, leading to the arrests of Branden Jamaal Stevens, 20, and 21-year old Henry Frederick Nagle, both of Horn Avenue in Boone. Each was charged with a count of Misdemeanor Larceny and set court date of April 23rd both released on a written promise to appear in court. The electric cart was recovered, according to Boone Police.
