

Search Still on Here For Charlotte Man

Written by Steve Frank

The search for John Greene Jr. is still underway, the Charlotte man missing over a week now. Family reported Friday morning that his vehicle was located last Friday just inside Tennessee after buying gas last Friday at the Wal-Mart in Spruce Pine, but that Charlotte police were not notified until Thursday. The car was found on April 19th at 2:30pm by a park ranger in Roan Mountain State Park near the Twin Peaks "Day Area". A search and rescue team was deployed, but did not find John by sundown, and he is still missing. Family says he left without heart medication. His picture is on GoBlueRidge.net
