Authorities have found two young girls who went missing after a fire early Saturday morning. Ten-year-old Shania Marie Osborne, was staying at the home of 13-year-old Tabitha Ashley Price.

Price's parents noticed that a fire had broken out shortly before 2 a.m. The cause of the fire has still not been determined. The sheriff's office said Tabitha Price has a history of running away from home. The girls were located in Mitchell County, North Carolina. Authorities have not released any more information.
