

State vehicles damaged

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Wednesday, 16 May 2007 05:41

Deputies also need leads in a case of vehicle vandalism that occurred Saturday.

Sometime between 11 p.m. and 8:30 a.m. Sunday, someone damaged three vehicles belonging to North Carolina Probation and Parole. The vehicles were parked in the parking lot of Rutherwood Baptist Church. The vehicles had both front and rear windshields busted out. Side windows were broken in one vehicle. The only clue is the broken end of a golf club, found in one of the cars. Police urge you to call Crimestoppers at 828-262-4555 with any information.