

Mountain Valley Fest comes to Boone tomorrow- absolutely free! Mountain Pathways School director Glenn Grizzard knows it's an event for the whole family, complete with food and kids activities.

Kids' activities include three different air walks, a fishing game, bingo, and fire trucks. Bands include the Forget-Me-Nots and the Crooknet Squashers. It's the 20th year of Mountain Pathways School, and Grizzard invites everyone to come out and celebrate. The event starts at 10 a.m. and will last until 5 p.m. Mountain Valley Fest will be at Green Valley Park on Big Hill Road.
