

At 7:30 in the Holmes Convocation Center, Watauga High School's senior class will celebrate graduation.

No tickets are needed, and people attending are encouraged to use the ASU parking deck. Valedictorian Brianna Fleming, salutatorian Cindy Burton, student body president Breanna Brown and senior class president Kinsey Spencer will speak. An estimated 340 students are expected to graduate, 65 percent of whom plan to attend a four-year institution. Fear not, Watauga will not be losing all of its seniors. Approximately 60 seniors have accepted invitations to attend ASU.
