The Site Director for the after school program at Parkway School has been named the Site Director of the Year in the Watauga County School System for 2008-2009.

Jill Holmes was presented with the award at a special after school field trip to Skate World last week.

As Site Director at Parkway School, Holmes is responsible for the care of around 65 children enrolled in the after school program.

According to Community Relations Director with Watauga County Schools, Marshall Ashcraft, Holmes must supervise a staff of five, coordinate planning of daily activities, monitor compliance with state child care licensing standards, ensure good communication with parents and school staff, and create a safe and organized environment for the program.
