

Senate approves budget- again

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge

Friday, 01 June 2007 04:06

The Senate approved for the second time a $20 billion spending plan for the next year.

The plan not only has bipartisan support, but it is slightly less than the House budget. The budget would raise court fees and invest more on the state's university system. The budget passed in yesterday's second vote, 41-0.