

Dell Computers to Lay Off Employees in Forsyth County

Written by Adam Hicks

Wednesday, 11 March 2009 05:51

Officials from the Dell computers plant in southern Forsyth County announced Wednesday that they will be laying off workers.

According to WXII-12, the layoffs are part of a reduction in global workforce to keep costs competitive.

The plant in Forsyth employs over 1,100 people and has been open for four years.