

Downtown Boone may be a little quieter this week while ASU is on spring break. Some students have remained in the High Country to hit the ski slopes, most however, are likely heading for warmer climates.