

Avery County has one year to find new superintendent

Written by Lauren Ohnesorge
Monday, 25 June 2007 22:01

Avery County Schools superintendent Grace Calhoun announced her retirement last week.

The School Board allowed Calhoun to leave her contract a year early- which pushes her retirement date ahead to June 30 2008.

A family illness facilitated the request, she said.

What does she anticipate to miss the most?

This leaves Avery County Schools a year to find a replacement.