

Tornado Drills

Written by Christie James

Wednesday, 14 March 2007 02:54

Governor Mike Easley has declared this Severe Weather Awareness Week. That includes tornado drills at some area public schools and state offices today. And tonight, celebrate the Watauga County Red Cross' 90th Anniversary with a special film. The organization is hosting a screening of Red On The Cross, which explores the life of International Red Cross Founder Henry Durant. The movie runs from 7-8:30 tonight at the Watauga County Library.