

Boone Town Council to Hold Organizational Meeting on Thursday

Written by Adam Hicks

Tuesday, 15 December 2009 10:54

The Boone Town Council will hold their organizational meeting on Thursday, and one of the key items on the agenda is to elect the Mayor Pro Tempore.

The current Mayor Pro Tem, Lynn Mason, is still an acting member of the Boone Town Council, but Town Clerk Frieda Van Allen said the general statutes mandate that the council either elect a new Mayor Pro Tem or re-elect Mason at the Council's first meeting in December after the election.

A few other items on the agenda for Thursday's meeting include considering rezoning requests, discussing spending priorities for the recently adopted Downtown Streetscape plan, discussing the parking charette report, and appointing board members to the Board of Adjustment, the Community Appearance Commission, and the Tree Board.

As always, the meeting is open to the public. It will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday at the Council Chambers on Blowing Rock Road.