March madness settles in this weekend. Some folks will travel to friends' homes or sports bars to watch.

That, coupled with St. Patrick's Day on Saturday will have the highway patrol out en force this weekend. They will be holding the first Booze It And Lose It driving campaign of 2007 in anticipation that NCAA games and the holiday will tempt more to drink and drive. Expect more officers on the road this weekend, and some traffic checkpoints.

If you aren't a sports fan and are looking for something out of the rain to do this weekend, you might check out 101 Dalmatians playing at the Hayes Performing Arts Center Saturday at 11am and 2:30pm.
