

Suspect in 19-year-old Murder Case to Face Death Penalty

Written by Adam Hicks
Friday, 14 May 2010 07:18

---

8:18 a.m. - The man suspected of killing two Lenoir residents in their home 19 years ago is now facing the death penalty.

Foothills Radio reports 50-year-old William Eugene Murphy could be put to death if convicted of the two counts of first-degree murder.

Caldwell County Sheriff Alan C. Jones announced Murphy's arrest early last month. The suspected murders took place in November of 1990.