

Families To Benefit from Ashe Fundraiser

Written by Submitted
Monday, 06 August 2012 05:39

Bake Sale and Silent Auction for Angel Trippe & Trethan Ham. At Faith Fellowship, August 18th from 11am-2pm. Local business are donating items to be auctioned off. Barker Stone of Lansing has donated an Amish made rocking chair to be auctioned, as well as Francis Photography has donated a free session, and many more great items. These families are both in need of financial support at this time and in the future. Angel lost her husband Adam on June 16th in a motorcycle accident. He left behind Angel and their two young daughters, Angel is a stay at home mom. Trethan Ham is 6 years old. He fell at a playground, which led to the discovery of a cancerous tumor to be found in his brain. He has undergone surgery to remove it, but is now in Indiana for Radiation treatment for the next 6 weeks. And then will be scheduled for Chemo at Brenner's Hospital in Winston. The family is responsible for travel and hotel expenses during the coming six weeks of treatment. All profits earned will be split between each family. Donations are still welcomed, if you have any questions please contact Courtney Milam 336-877-6284 or Angel Trippe 336-977-8601. Both family's have accounts set up with State Employee's Credit Union of West Jefferson, NC if you would like to donate.