Domino is a Black and white Pomeranian that was last seen on 10/20 around 10 pm off N Pine Run Rd, 5 miles from Boone. He's 5 years old with an invisible fence collar on. He has a short haircut, black patch over his right eye and is very friendly. A picture is on humane society website. Humane Society also called and said he was spotted on the Greenway with a couple on Sunday who was also walking a blonde haired Japanese Chin dog. Please Call
