Rain continues to hamper the baseball schedule in the Northwestern 3A/4A Conference.

The St. Stephens-Bunker Hill and the Fred T. Foard-Bandys games were washed out Thursday. No make up dates have been announced. Foard and Bandys, who were rained out Wednesday, were hoping to get their game in on Thursday, but the weatherman did not cooperate.

There were three games washed out on Wednesday: Foard and Bandys, Hickory and Newton-Conover and Hibriten and Bunker Hill were all rained out. The Hickory-Newton Conover game will be made up April 6, the Hibriten-Bunker Hill game will be played Saturday. The Pioneers travel to South Caldwell Friday night. Our coverage begins at 6 pm on Oldies 100.7 FM.
